

VYDEHI GROUP OF INSTITUTIONS CELEBRATES

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

WITH GP CAPT SHAHLA YAZDANI

Vydehi Group of Institutions marked International Women's Day with a vibrant and inspiring celebration, honoring the strength, resilience, and contributions of women in healthcare and education. The event was graced by Gp Capt Shahla Yazdani, OB-GYN from Command Hospital, Bengaluru, whose presence added immense value to the occasion.

The celebration began with an auspicious Ganesh Vandana, performed by students from the Nursing College, setting a spiritual and positive tone. The chief guest and other dignitaries were then warmly welcomed and felicitated, followed by a traditional lamp-lighting ceremony symbolizing enlightenment and empowerment.

As part of the cultural performances, students from the Dental and Physiotherapy Colleges showcased their creativity through engaging acts, captivating the audience with their talent. The highlight of the event was the keynote address by Gp Capt Shahla Yazdani, where she emphasized the importance of women's empowerment in healthcare, leadership, and society. Her words resonated deeply, inspiring students and faculty alike.

The celebration continued with the announcement of winners from various competitions held for girl students, recognizing their achievements and talents. More cultural performances followed, with students from Degree College and AHS College bringing energy and enthusiasm to the stage.

Acknowledging the importance of inclusivity, the event also celebrated the participation of male students in competitions, appreciating their role in fostering gender equality. Performances from Medical, Nursing and Pharmacy College students added further vibrancy to the day's celebrations.

The Chairperson of the Vydehi Group of Institutions then delivered a powerful address, reinforcing the institution's commitment to creating an inclusive environment where women are encouraged to lead and excel. Following this, results were announced for the Treasure Hunt Competition and the Inter-Department Dance Competition, with winners being felicitated for their enthusiasm and teamwork.

The celebration concluded on a patriotic note with the National Anthem, leaving the audience with a sense of unity and pride. As attendees departed, the spirit of empowerment and inspiration lingered, making this International Women's Day a truly memorable occasion at the Vydehi Group of Institutions.
